

Romans Chapter 5
Study Questions
Women's Discipleship

I pray as we study the great Gospel of God in Romans, that your heart is enraptured all the more with an increasing love and faith in Christ and overwhelming gratitude for the greatness of your salvation in Him. May this love spur us on toward the pursuit of holiness in living a godly life all for His praise and glory. For it is to Him that we live and move and have our being.

This month, read through Romans Chapter 5 several times and answer the following Questions:

1. "Therefore, since we have been justified through faith.." are the opening words of Chapter 5 and the whole paragraph (1-11) rests on these words. Paul makes 6 bold assertions in the name of all whom God has justified. What are they?

2. From verses 1-11 what would you say is the clear resultant character or major mark of justified believers' character?

3. How does theology lead to doxology and praise? In what way(s) does healthy doctrine stimulate worship?

4. In verses 12-21 Paul compares and contrasts the two humanities in Adam and in Christ.

A. Summarize the scope and work of what each provided/brought to all humanity

B. How are you related to Adam? Is it right that something Adam did before you were born affects you? How is it fair for God to impute Adam's sin to you? do you think you would have fared better than Adam did during his probation in the garden?

C. Why is Jesus called the last Adam and not the second Adam in 1 Corinthians 15:45? Is Adam's sin the last word for those who turn in repentance and faith to Jesus Christ? Explain. How much greater is the last Adam's gracious work than the first Adam's sin?
