Romans 12
Living a life of Sacrifice and Service

1. In 12:1, what is the basis on which Paul calls the Romans to live a sacrificed life? Explain. Secondly, through what means is that accomplished, and what is the main reason Paul gives is the deterrent to living in such a manner (verse2)? Explain why this is so.
2. How does a child of God "prove" the will of God in his/her life?
3. What is the source of our gifts? And how does diverse gifts contribute to the unity of the body of Christ?
4. What role does humility play in the believers' life in general, as well as specifically in the exercise of his/her gifts?
5. From verses 9-21 make a list of all the commands or imperatives in this section. Is there an action or attitude that is more important than all the rest?

6. Puritan John Trapp said, "Affection without action is like Rachel, beautiful but barren." What does biblical love look like, and how does knowing Christ motivate you to actively love others?
7. How is it possible to love others (both Christian and non) even if there are no emotional feelings toward the person or persons?
8. What are some practical/tangible ways you can show love toward your brothers and sisters in Christ? How about non-believers?
9. Is it always possible to be at peace with everyone? Why or Why not?
10. Lastly, list some specific ways you can overcome evil with good.
